

Activity 7: Enable a Vacation responder automatic reply

Next, practice setting an automated reply to be sent to emails you receive while you're out of the office.

Note: This setting may also be referred to as "Out-of-Office AutoReply."

Complete the following steps:

1. From your Gmail settings "General" tab, scroll to "Vacation responder".
2. Enter a subject and a message.
3. Choose the dates to begin and end the responses.
4. Click Save Changes.
5. Return to your Gmail settings and disable the "Vacation responder". Remember to save your changes.
