

Activity 9: Explore Gmail search

Now it's your turn to try using different search criteria to try to find the same messages. The criteria you use may depend on your organizational policies. Examples may include search by date, by sender, or by label.

Explore Gmail search to locate messages of interest to you. For more details, refer to the Search operators you can use with Gmail help center article.